Thad Matta, Ohio State University
 Coach Matta has now been the head man at OSU for 11 seasons and in that span, all his teams have done is win! In addition to 11 straight 20 win seasons, Matta has led the Buckeyes to five Big 10 regular season championships, four Big 10 Tourney titles, a NIT Championship, 9 trips to the NCAA tournament (now with 7 straight consecutive berths), and 2 Final Four appearances. He has 401 total DI wins and his .762 overall winning percentage ranks him 5th among active DI coaches.

Jay Bilas, ESPN Basketball Analyst
 Jay, who began in his current role is as an ESPN College Basketball Analyst in 1995, has an extensive basketball background. He was a 4 year starter at Duke and then played professionally overseas. He returned to Duke, earned a law degree, and then became an Assistant Coach for the Blue Devils, where he was a part of 3 Final Fours, claiming back to back championships in 1991 & 1992. Additionally, he is involved each summer at the various Nike Skills Academies. Jay is the author of the NY Times best selling book "Toughness".

Chris Holtmann, Butler University
 Coach Holtmann's initial season in 2015 as head coach of the Butler program was indeed a success. He guided a Butler team that was picked to tie for seventh in the BIG EAST to a 23-11 campaign, a tie for second place in the BIG EAST regular season race and a berth in the NCAA Tournament. Prior to this past year, he spent a year as a Butler assistant. Coach Holtmann had been the head coach at Gardner-Webb for 2 seasons and prior to that, had been an assistant at Ohio for 3 seasons.

Mano Watsa, PGC Basketball
 Mano currently serves as the President/Owner of Point Guard College Basketball. This organization specializes in teaching players & coaches how to think the game, how to lead, and how to create a winning culture. He was a 2 time All-Canadian point guard while playing for the University of Waterloo. Prior to his PGC years, Mano spent 8 years as a collegiate coach, with 3 years as the head coach at his alma mater.

Speakers

Bob Huggins, West Virginia University
 Coach Huggins, beginning his 34th season as a collegiate head coach, has spent the last 8 years at his alma mater, West Virginia University. His 765 wins rank him 3rd among active DI coaches. His 2014-15 WVU team went 25-10, advancing to the Sweet Sixteen; this team led the NCAA in 4 statistical categories! Huggins was named both the Big 12 and a National COY in 2015. He has taken 29 of his 33 teams to postseason play, with 21 trips to the NCAA tourney and 2 teams to the Final Four.

Gary Waters, Cleveland State Univ.
 Coach Waters is beginning his 10th season as the head coach with the Viking program. He has turned around the fortunes of the CSU program by posting five 20 win seasons while advancing his teams to the post season 6 times, with one appearance in the NCAA tourney. Prior to his arriving at CSU, he was an assistant coach for 22 years before being named the head coach at Kent State in 1996. Coach Waters spent 5 seasons with the Flashes before being named the head coach at Rutgers in 2006.

Jim Jabir, University of Dayton
 Coach Jabir, named the head coach at Dayton in 2003, has become the all-time wins leader in the school's history and has made the Flyers a perennial Top 25 and NCAA tourney team. His 2014-15 Flyer team completed a 28-7 season, finishing in the NCAA Elite Eight marking the 6th consecutive season the Flyers have made the NCAA tourney. Two Flyer players were drafted into the WNBA from that team. Jim has completed 28 seasons as a DI head coach, with stints at Providence, Marquette, and Sienna.

Other Clinic Offerings:

Dave Cecutti, a former head coach at Capital and assistant coach at OSU, is the current Commissioner of the OCC, and is the color analyst on the MAC basketball telecasts. He will talk about the "State of the Game" and offer some motivational ideas as part of his session.
