Dave Close Wins his 500th Game and Receives the Clem Caraboolad Award

This past season, Dave Close of Stow High School recorded his 500th victory. During his tenure at Stow, he has guided the Bulldogs to the state final four in 1990 and 1993, six district championships, 13 league championships and 23 sectional titles. Because of this success and the impact that he and his team have off the hardwood, he was the recipient of the Clem Caraboolad Award by the Akron Beacon Journal. This award is given annually to honor coaches who show dedication to students on and off the playing

Fleming earns 400th Win

On January 24th, Dan Fleming of La Salle won his 400th game. He has spent the last 25 seasons at La Salle compiling a 407-212 record. Dan is the winningest coach in La Salle history and has also won the schools only state basketball championships in 1996 and 2011.
